

CANADA DAY SQUARE DANCE ON THE GORGE

The Square Dance on the Gorge demonstration is happening again this year on Saturday, July 1, celebrating Canada's 150th Birthday. Elizabeth Hohner of the Promenaders will be calling with appearances by new callers Kirk Rockerbie and Dwight Fry, with Sandra Rowan cueing rounds, and Cheryl Mackenzie on photography.

This is listed as a "Canada 150" event and can be viewed online at Passport 2017 www.passport2017.ca. Click on News & Events, then type Square Dance in the Search for events and articles! box.

Things get rolling about noon and end at 4 pm. Dress as you like with outdoor shoes, but full colours are most assuredly appropriate. Last year we had an open rest area displaying local club banners with free water available, and plan for the same this year. This free event is open to all clubs, with a focus on both new and experienced dancers to get out and show their stuff. Part of Elizabeth's program includes crowd participation and that is one of the more fun aspects of the show.

Location: on Gorge Road West, Victoria between Inlet Avenue and Colquitz Avenue.

Official event times: 12:30 pm to 2:30 pm
