Joe Kromer

Joe was born in Freiburg im Breisgau and is married to Caroline. Together they have three children and live in Tannheim, in the beautiful Black Forest. Joe has been dancing since 1991 and at his Mainstream Graduation 1992, he called his first tip. Until now he has called various special dances, regional conventions and national Jamborees in Germany, Canada, USA, Australia, Switzerland, France, Czech Republic, Austria, Sweden, Norway and the Netherlands. Joe calls from beginner level to A2 and is a member of Callerlab and ECTA e.V. Already in 1995, Joe held his first seminar and was asked in 1999 to hold a seminar in Kenny Reese's Caller School, after which he was Staff Coach from 2000. In the summer of 2003, Joe passed the test Callerlab for Accredited Caller Coach. Joe is now the second German, which has undergone and passed this elaborate process of preparing and testing. In 2005, Joe founded his music label Gramophone Productions. 2011 Joe took over the School of Caller Education and Leadership Development, as his role model and partner Kenny Reese died far too early.

Gary Winter

Gary is a well known caller in Canada from Edmonton, Alberta. Gary has the loving support of his wife Trish, and their two sons, Coen and Kaiden. He has been calling for more than 30 years. He has attended many caller schools over the years and has been on staff for many caller schools and seminars. Gary has several recordings on the Shindig and is currently a staff caller on Goldwing Records. Gary has always promoted square dancing at all levels and with all audiences and is well prepared and very professional. He is always willing to share his knowledge of square dancing and his love for the activity shows in the enthusiasm that he brings to each event he is involved with. Gary works tirelessly in his efforts to move square dancing forward to keep the movement interesting and challenging for all, at a time when many other activities are available to the population
